JEFF. DAVIS IN ATLANTA.

We learn that there will soon be an effort made to induce ex-President Jefferson Davis to visit Atlanta and deliver a lecture here. By a number of worthy persons, it is proposed to carry out. There is probably no man in the United States who would draw a larger audience than this distinguished citizen. As an orator he has few equals. Years ago when he sat in the United States senate, he was the most popular and eloquent man in that distinguished body. As a public speaker he has held the highest rank for years. A lecture from him would certainly draw the largest audience that ever assembled in Atlanta to attend a literary entertainment. It is almost certain that he will be here soon.

CHAMBERLIN, BOYNTON & CO., DRY GOODS, CARPETS, BOOTS AND SHOES. CARPETS AND HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS.

We will add to our present stock Carpets on Monday, 30th inst., an immense line of CARPETS bought by Mr. Boynton of our firm at a manufacturer's closing sale. The patterns are beautiful, and prices very low. We have an immense stock, at bottom prices. We mean to reduce our stock, and if you wish bargains give us a call, and you shall be satisfied.

CHAMBERLIN, BOYNTON & CO., 654 Peachtree St. 4th and 5th cts 4th fl.

THE SUPREME COURT.

Decided January 23, 1879.

Jackson, J., did not preside in this case on account of relationship to defendant in the case of Jeff. Davis vs. The State, was designated to preside in his place. Pittman, Ordinary vs. Glenn, Solicitor General. Rule, from Fulton.

POTTER.

At the January term of the superior court, a rule was taken out against the defendant, as former solicitor-general, requiring him to show cause why he should not pay to the ordinary said county money, which it was alleged was received by him as solicitor-general, and which he had received for the use of the county.

THE HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION.
